Press Release

ReneSola Special Committee Engages Financial Advisor and Legal Counsel

SHANGHAI, July 17, 2017 -- ReneSola Ltd (“ReneSola” or the “Company”) (www.renesola.com) (NYSE: SOL), a leading fully integrated solar project developer and provider of energy-efficient products, today announced that the special committee (the “Special Committee”) of its board of directors (the “Board”) has retained Roth Capital Partners as its financial advisor and Kirkland & Ellis as its U.S. legal counsel in connection with its review and evaluation of the previously-announced preliminary non-binding proposal (“Proposal”), dated June 13, 2017, from Mr. Xianshou Li, the Company’s Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (“Mr. Li”), to acquire the Company’s manufacturing business (including polysilicon, solar wafer and solar module manufacturing) and LED distribution business and assume related indebtedness and other alternatives available to the Company.

The Company cautions the Company’s shareholders and others considering trading the Company’s securities that neither the Board nor the Special Committee has made any decision with respect to the Company’s response to the Proposal. There can be no assurance that any definitive offer will be made, that any definitive agreement will be executed relating to the proposed transaction or that this or any other transaction will be approved or consummated. The Company does not undertake any obligation to provide any updates with respect to this or any other transaction, except as required under applicable law.

About ReneSola

Safe Harbor Statement

This press release contains statements that constitute “forward-looking” statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Whenever you read a statement that is not simply a statement of historical fact (such as when the Company describes what it “believes,” “plans,” “expects” or “anticipates” will occur, what “will” or “could” happen, and other similar statements), you must remember that the Company’s expectations may not be correct, even though it believes that they are reasonable. The Company does not guarantee that the forward-looking statements will happen as described or that they will happen at all. Further information regarding risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements is included in the Company’s filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company’s annual report on Form 20-F. The Company undertakes no obligation, beyond that required by law, to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which the statement is made, even though the Company’s situation may change in the future.
